Format	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. This tournament is a three-round 54-hole stroke tournament. Players must complete at least 36 holes to be eligible for world ranking points.</li> <li>2. After the first two rounds, the top 50 players (including ties) will advance to the final round.</li> <li>3. If there is a tie for first place (champion), a sudden-death playoff will be conducted to determine the winner. The playoff will continue hole by hole until a winner is determined, with the specific holes for the playoff determined by the tournament committee. Note: If there is a tie for first place between a professional player and an amateur player (or between two amateur players), a sudden-death playoff will also be conducted, continuing hole by hole until a winner is determined. In the case where an amateur player becomes the champion, she will receive the championship trophy, while the prize money will be awarded to the top professional player.</li> <li>4. In case of ties for other positions               <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. For pro- players: the total prize money applicable to the tied positions will be divided equally among the pro players.</li> <li>b. For am- players: the player with the better final round score will be awarded the higher position. If there is still a tie, the scores from the 18th hole of the final round will be compared hole by hole backwards until a winner is determined.</li> </ol> </li> <li>5. The tournament follows the latest R&amp;A international golf rules and the Tournament Committee's local rules. The decisions of the Tournament Committee are final.</li> <li>6. If the tournament completes two rounds or more, prize money will be awarded to the top 50 players (including ties) according to the prize distribution chart. If the tournament cannot proceed due to harsh weather or other force majeure circumstances, the final decision will be made by the Tournament Committee. If one round has been completed, 70% of the prize money in the distribution chart will be awarded to the top 50 players (including ties). ## TLPGA TOUR Practice Regulations

a. The following exercises should be allowed:

- (1) The players only;
- (2) In designated practice areas only; and
- (3) Within the specified time only.

b. In each event, players have the responsibility to pay attention to the rules of practice.

c. If possible, players should complete the registration before the start of the practice round. If your practice round begins before the start of the registration, such procedures should be carried out immediately after the practice round is completed.

d. During practice days, players must be aware of their pace of play and the distance between the groups in front and behind. Players can play an extra ball in the following situations:

- (1) Miss the fairway on his/her tee shot.
- (2) Miss the green when approaching the green.
- (3) No more than 3 chip shots on the edge of the green, and such play does not damage the course.
- (4) Up to two shots can be made towards the green from a greenside bunker. Other bunker practice shots must be played away from the green (maximum 2 times).

e. However, the above clauses do not apply in the following situations:

- (1) If there is another group of players waiting behind, no additional practice shots are allowed.
- (2) Once the latter group is ready to approach the green, the players on the green must leave quickly.

Encourage players to:

- Wear flat shoes during the practice period after the practice/ competition round; and
- Please pay attention to the damage to the course caused by the practice.

Disciplinary sanctions :

Highest fine — NT$10,000
